

Bastille day ceremony at Arlington cemetery, when wreaths were placed on the graves of French soldiers. In center of photograph Secretary of War Baker, Gen. Marsh and Prince de Berne, commercial attache of the French embassy.

By National Photo Co.

French nurses of the world war placing flowers at the base of the Edith Cavell monument, recently unveiled in France.

Photo from Sterling Hall.

Miss Gertrude Olmstead of La Salle, Ill., proclaimed the winner in beauty contest conducted by the Elks at their annual convention in Chicago. Miss Olmstead was immediately signed by the movies.

Wide World photo.

Prince Victor Napoleon, who inherits the vast fortune of ex-Empress Eugenie, who died recently in France. The prince lives in Belgium.

© Keystone View Co.

Frank Theodore Allen, Washington astrologer, who says that the stars predict the election of Gov. Cox as President. But the stars go further, adds Mr. Allen, and forecast the re-election of Cox in 1924.

National Photo Co.

Mlle. Albertina Rasch, Polish classical dancer, who arrived in America from Paris recently, equipped with a pocket electric fan, which she holds in the photograph.

© Keystone View Co.

Gov. Cox enjoys a day on his farm near Dayton. He is showing newspaper men that he knows something about shocking wheat.

Wide World photo.

And Gov. Coolidge, clad in the most humble of garments, sits himself down upon a three-legged stool and proceeds to coax lacteal fluid from his prize kine.

Wide World photo.

JELKE GOOD LUCK MARGARINE

The Finest Spread for Bread

JOHN F. JELKE CO.
TRADE MARK
GOOD LUCK
OLEOMARGARINE

With cold, crisp lettuce and dainty slices of bread makes a delicious luncheon. Try GOOD LUCK today—in warm weather especially, one's appetite craves foods that are pure, fresh and wholesome.

GOOD LUCK is churned from pure nourishing ingredients in rich milk and cream amid scrupulously clean surroundings.

Uniform in quality and economical in price at all seasons, GOOD LUCK is the preferred choice of millions of housewives.

JOHN F. JELKE COMPANY
Chicago New York
Philadelphia Pittsburgh
Cleveland